BRAMBLE FORMAT RULES

Please be reminded that all players must use a cart during the event and adhere to proper dress code.

All players drive, select the best drive; all players play their own ball from the spot of the selected ball.

Players are to drop a ball within one foot of the selected ball, maintaining like lie conditions.

Handicap: This is a gross only event; no handicap allocation.

Please clearly record the Team scores in the appropriate boxes and rows.

Please be reminded that the player's ball, which is to count for the Team Score, must be holed. All other players are encouraged to pick-up once the Team Score has been recorded. This will greatly aid in the pace of play.

Mulligans: Two per player maximum. Not valid for prize qualification on Closest to the Pin or Longest Drive. Valid only on Tee Shots.

Slow Play: Teams that fall out of position during the round shall be reminded once to regain their proper position on the course. Any second reminder will cause a Team Penalty of 1 stroke.

At the conclusion of play, participants are invited to drive their carts into the parking lot to drop off their clubs. Participants are then asked to please return the carts to the staging area prior to submitting your tournament card to the scoreboard.
Thank you.

AUCTION RULES

All silent auction items have bid sheets nearby. Items will have minimum bids to start. If you wish to bid, please print your name and your bid amount on the bid sheet per the printed bid increment.

Bid sheets may not be removed from the tables.

Winning bidders must pay for their auction item(s) during or at the close of the event.

Cash, checks or credit cards accepted. Please make checks payable to Latham Centers. We accept Visa, MasterCard and Discover.

All sales are final. There are no exchanges, refunds or cancellations.

The buyer waives any claims against either Latham Centers or the donor.

Neither Latham Centers, Inc., nor the donor is responsible for any personal injuries or damages to property that result from the utilization of property or services sold.

Auction catalog and signed descriptions are for convenience only. Neither Latham Centers, Inc., nor the donor is responsible for errors in the description, authenticity, or conditions of the goods and services auctioned.

Auction items are priced by donors, and in some cases, values are approximated.

Amounts paid over the stated value of any auction item qualify as tax-deductible donations to Latham Centers.

Auction items purchased for equal or lesser value than the actual value of the item are not deductible, but nonetheless help support our programs.

All guests are encouraged to bid.

Bid High, and Bid Often!

Thank you for your support of Latham Centers' children and adult programs for our residents with complex special needs living and thriving on Cape Cod.

Auctioneer: John W. Terrio, Auction Knights, Inc.

Latham Centers is proud to honor Bob Bernstein and his son, Latham student, Brandon Bernstein. Bob has played a significant role in the growth and popularity of the annual Latham Golf Classic. Together, he and Brandon have raised over $100,000 to support Latham Centers' life-changing programs.

Bob & his 2015 Golf Team

Bob is the owner of Foremost Footwear, a footwear design and sourcing company in Needham Heights, MA. Brandon has been a student at Latham Centers for the past six years, where he volunteers for local non-profits and participates in a myriad of skill building activities. Latham Centers' individualized treatment model is enhanced by Bob's investment in Brandon's happiness and success.

Bob is also father to three daughters, Diana, (30) and Alanna, (27) who live in Los Angeles, and Maddyson, (23) who resides in Boston. He is a master multi-tasker, juggling his family responsibilities and community obligations with an incredibly complex travel schedule. He is the epitome of a hard-working, philanthropic, family man.

Brandon at Prom

We at Latham Centers are so grateful to Bob and Brandon for all that they have done to embrace Latham Centers' mission. On behalf of the Board of Directors, staff and most importantly, the residents of Latham Centers, we are pleased and proud to name them the 2016 Latham Charity Golf Classic Honorees.

Please support Bob, Brandon and the residents of Latham Centers with a financial gift and corresponding recognition in our 2016 Golf Tournament Tribute Booklet.
